[illegible] authorize the borrowing of money in anticipation of the revenue of 1[illegible]71.

An Ordinance.

To authorize the Committee on Finance appointed by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne together with the Mayor of said city to negotiate [illegible] and money may be borrowed.

Whereas, By the 83d Section of the Act entitled an act to repeal all general laws now in force for the incorporation of cities and to provide for the incorporation of cities, prescribing their powers and rights, and the manner in which they shall exercise the same and to regulate such other matters as properly pertain thereto, approved March 14th 1867, under which the city of Fort-Wayne is incorporated; it is provided that "Loans may be made by a vote of two-thirds of the Common Council in anticipation of the revenue of the current and following year and payable within that period, but the aggregate amount of such loan in any fiscal year shall not exceed the levy and tax authorized by this act for municipal expenses for the year.

And whereas, the City of Fort Wayne by the provisions of said act is authorized to levy and collect over One Hundred Thousand Dollars in each year, for municipal expenses.— And whereas the levy and tax authorized for the year 1871 exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars. Now therefore in anticipation of said revenue, and that the city may be saved loss on account of the discount of her orders heretofore issued in payment of expenses and disbursements.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort-Wayne, (two-thirds of all the members concurring therein), that the Committee on Finance, appointed by the Common Council, in connection with the Mayor of the City be and are hereby instructed and empowered to negotiate and perfect a loan of money for the purpose of meeting the current expenses of the city for the Fiscal year commencing on the 3 first day of June 1871, and ending on the first day of June 1872, and for no other purposes whatever to the aggregate amount of Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($75,000). Said money to be borrowed as follows:-

Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) on the first-day of June 1871. Ten thousand dollars ($10,000) on the first of each of the months of July, August, September, October and November 1871. All of said sums and amounts to be due and payable, at the office of the Treasurer of the city, on the first day May, 1872

And said Committee and said Mayor, are authorized to contract for the payment of interest on said amounts not to exceed ten per cent. per annum, payable on the 1st day of May 1872, the same as the principal

Section 2. And be it further ordained that said Finance Committee and Mayor be and are hereby authorized in borrowing said sums of money to execute and deliver to the party, or parties from whom any such loan shall be made, the written obligation of the City of Fort-Wayne for the sum so borrowed, which written obligation shall be in the following form:

"The State of Indiana, City of Fort-Wayne.

The City of Fort-Wayne agrees to pay to the order of the sum of Dollars at the office of the City Treasurer of said City on the first day of May, 1872 with interest at per cent. per annum, payable also on the 1st day of May 1872.

Said written obligation shall be signed by the Mayor of the City and attested by the Clerk of the City when so signed, attested and delivered shall be valid and shall bind the City to all intents and purposes.

Section 3.- This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Done at the Council Chamber in the City of Fort-Wayne this 11th day of April 1871.

An Ordinance
To locate the East line of Court Street.

Whereas; there is and has been some doubt as to the precise location of the East line of Court Street in the City of Fort Wayne, and.

Whereas; expensive buildings have been erected on said line, as the same was formerly located, and

Whereas; John G. Foster and Scott Foster are the owners of Lot No (98) ninety-eight; and the South half of Lot No (85) eighty-five, in the Original Plat of the town of Fort Wayne, and also, all that parcel of land, laid out as an alley between said lots, running East and West from Court to Clinton streets in said Fort Wayne, and vacated by Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, making in all eighty-two (82) feet and three (3) inches front on said Court and Clinton streets including said alley, and fronting on the said Eastern boundary of said Court street, are about to erect thereon extensive and valuable buildings, and have laid the foundations for such buildings on the said Eastern line of said street in line with the buildings adjoining their ground, and on the said East line of said street as indicated by the said buildings supposed to have been erected thereon, and

Whereas; in view of the large and permanent interests involved, it is desirable, both on the part of the City, and the property owners, that said Eastern boundary of said street shall be fixed and established, therefore

Be it Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, that the Eastern line and boundary of said Court street shall and the same is hereby declared to be a line, co-inciding with the Western front of the walls of the buildings supposed to have been heretofore erected, and now standing thereon; And the West front of the foundation wall as supposed to be laid thereon by the said Fosters, and the owners of said buildings, and the said Fosters, their Heirs and assigns shall and may hereinafter hold and maintain the Eastern boundary of said street, as being located and established, and hold and possess the ground East thereof as fully as if the line now located had always been the true Eastern boundary of said street, and all that portion of said street East of said line is hereby declared vacated.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage

An Ordinance

To construct Nicolson pavement on Calhoun Street from Wayne street South to the track of the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.

Whereas; the Nicolson Pavement heretofore laid on Calhoun street, and paid for by the owners of lots bordering on the same, has proved to be less durable than was expected, and requires for its suitable repairing to be entirely relaid with new blocks at an expense which it would be burdensome to impose entirely upon the owners of property thereon, therefore

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne (two-thirds of all the members concurring); that the Nicolson Pavement now on Calhoun street, from Wayne street to the track of the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, (except the space occupied by the track of the Citizens Street Railroad) be taken up, the grade of the street altered, and the street repaved with Nicolson Pavement as hereinafter provided. (The Council aforesaid hereby declares such Improvement and Repair necessary)

Section 2. The City shall take up and ~~repair~~ remove the present pavement on Calhoun street, between the points above named, except the space occupied by the track of the Citizens Street Railroad; to so alter the grade of the street, that the surface shall form a continuous curve from the centre of the street to the curbstone on each side; to prepare the bed of the street ready to receive the blocks of the Nicolson pavement using for that purpose all the old material which is suitable, and for the rest procuring new; to saw up the Oak boards now belonging to the City of Fort Wayne, into suitable blocks for relaying the pavement; to deliver the same as fast as needed to the contractor who shall lay the same as hereinafter provided; and to procure and furnish to said contractor, all the plank, nails, gravel, tar, or other materials necessary to the relaying and complete finishing of said pavement, for all of which it is hereby provided that payment shall be made out of the general revenue of the City of Fort Wayne

Section 3. The cost and expense of re-laying said pavement upon the street thus graded and prepared, and with the materials thus furnished, including all top dressing or finishing necessary above the blocks of wood (except so much of said street as is occupied by the crossings of streets and alleys) shall be assessed against and collected from the owners of lots bordering on said street according to the provisions of Sections 68-69-70 and 71 of the City Charter.

Section 4. Said work shall be done under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the City Civil Engineer, and in accordance with the plans and specifications on file at the office of said City Engineer.

Section 5. The City Civil Engineer is hereby directed to set the proper stakes, and also to advertise by publication for 10 days in the Fort Wayne Daily Sentinel, and three times in the Tri-Weekly "Staats Zeitung", and by posting up printed notices in the most public parts of the City, that sealed proposals will be received by the Common Council at the meeting of said Council to be held on the 24th day of August A. An Ordinance

Providing for the issuing of Bonds by the City of Fort Wayne, for the purpose of procuring money with which to pay certain City Park Bonds, which will mature in January 1876-

Whereas, certain bonds issued by the City of Fort Wayne, on the 26th day of January 1866- amounting to $26,500- commonly called and known as City Park Bonds, will mature on the 26th day of January 1876- And

Whereas, certain School Bonds issued by the City of of Fort Wayne on the 1st day of April 1870, amounting to $10,000, will mature on the 1st day of April 1876; And

Whereas; the amount of money to be collected from the Sinking Fund tax, levied for the current fiscal year, together, together with the amount in the hands of the City Treasurer, to the credit of the Sinking Fund, will be insufficient to redeem all of said bonds as they mature; therefore

Section 1.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, two-thirds of all the members concurring, that for the purposes of procuring money with which to redeem such a portion of the above named City Park Bonds, as the City will be unable to pay at maturity, with the Sinking Fund levied for the year 1875, and the amount now in the hands of the Treasurer; Bonds of the City of Fort Wayne shall be issued, of the denomination of One thousand dollars ($1,000) each, to the aggregate of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) bearing date the 25th day of January 1876- and payable at the Banking house of Winslow, Lanier & co. in the City of New York, five years after date, viz; on the 25th day of January 1881- with interest from date, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 25th day of January and the 25th day of July of each year; for which interest the proper interest coupons shall be annexed to said bonds, and be made a part of the same, and be payable at the same place with said bonds and coupons shall be signed by the Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, and attested by the Clerk of said city; and each of said bonds shall be sealed with the seal of the City of Fort Wayne. Said bonds express on their face for what purpose they are issued and under what ordinance, and shall be in form as follows—

State of Indiana, City of Fort Wayne

No ——

$1000—

The City of Fort Wayne, in the State of Indiana acknowledges, that said City owes, and hereby agrees to pay to ———— ———— or bearer, the sum of One thousand dollars, payable at the Banking House of Winslow, Lanier & Co. in the City of New York, on the 25th day of January 1881 with interest from date, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable on the 25th day of January, and July of each year, upon the presentation and surrender of the proper coupon hereto attached, the interest also payable at said banking house

This bond with the interest thereon is to be paid without any relief from valuation or appraisement laws. This bond is one of a series of twenty like bonds, of One thousand dollars each, issued to ———— ———— or bearer, for the purpose of procuring money with which to redeem such a portion of the City Park bonds, as the said City will be unable to pay at maturity out of the Sinking Fund levied for the year 1875—and the money now in the hands of the City Treasurer to the credit of the Sinking Fund, authorized by an ordinance of the said City, passed in pursuance of law on the 28th day of December 1875; And the faith of said City is hereby pledged for the payment thereof with the interest thereon, for which purpose the necessary tax shall be levied and collected.

In testimony whereof, and in pursuance of the Ordinance aforesaid, the Mayor of said City has hereto set his hand, and caused the seal of said City to be hereunto affixed; and the Clerk of said City has attested the same, this 25th day of January 1876—

To provide for the issuing of the City Bonds for the purpose of paying a portion of the indebtedness of the City.

Whereas: on the 15th day of September 1867 the City issued her Bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 10 per centum per annum, payable semi-annually to the amount of $65,000 at 10 years from their date which Bonds by the terms thereof will become due and payable on the 15th day of September 1877 – And Whereas: there is not now, and will not probably be sufficient funds in the hands of the Treasurer, not otherwise appropriated, to pay said Bonds, when they become due. And

Whereas: the annual reports of Clerk and Treasurer of the City for the year ending April 1st 1877 recites and shows the date of the issue of said Bonds, the rate of interest thereon, and when the principal and interest of the same becomes due and payable – Therefore

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, that in pursuance of of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana entitled, "An Act authorizing incorporated cities containing a population of fifteen thousand to make loans and prescribe rules and regulations concerning the borrowing of money by such cities"; And an "Act to authorize cities to issue bonds for the purpose of funding their indebtedness, reducing the rate of interest on pre-existing obligations compromising with any creditor or creditors, or taking up and cancelling bonds, notes, or other securities already due, or which shall hereafter become due, and making it the duty of the Common Council of such cities to levy taxes for the payment of the interest, and to provide sinking funds for the liquidation of the principal of said bonds" – approved March 3rd 1877

That bonds of said City be issued to the amount of Fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in sums of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) each; nor more than One thousand dollars ($1000) each, payable to the bearer at the office of the Third National Bank in the City of New York, at fifteen (15) years from the date thereof, with interest thereon at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the office of said Third National Bank of New York, to be signed by the Mayor of said City, and attested by the Clerk thereof, and sealed with the seal of said City.

Section 2. Be it further ordained that the said Bonds be issued in the following form, viz:

The State of Indiana, City of Fort Wayne.

No. ______ $______

The City of Fort Wayne agrees to pay to the bearer the sum of One thousand dollars ($1,000) at the office of the Third National Bank of New York, in the City of New York on the fifteenth day of September 1892 with interest thereon from the 15th day of September 1877, at six (6) per centum per annum payable semi-annually; Said interest to be paid at the office of the said Third National Bank of New York, in said City of New York, upon presentation of interest coupons hereto attached.

This Bond is issued pursuant to an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act to authorize cities to issue bonds for the purpose of funding their indebtedness, reducing the rate of interest on pre-existing obligations, compromising with any creditor or creditors, or taking up and cancelling bonds, notes, or other securities already due, or which shall hereafter become due, and making it the duty of Common Councils of such cities to levy taxes for the payment of interest, and to provide sinking funds for the liquidation of the principal of said bonds" approved March 3rd 1877 and an ordinance of said City, adopted in pursuance of said Act on the 10th day of July 1877.

The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne do ordain as fo...

Section 1. There shall be provided a public pound, at some convenient and suitable point in the City of Fort Wayne, which shall be of sufficient size for the purpose intended. It shall be surrounded by a strong wall or fence, said wall or fence to be constructed of brick or other suitable material. Said wall or fence shall be not less than seven feet in height with only one opening or entrance, to be secured by a substantial door that cannot be opened excepting by the person authorized for that purpose. There shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of said door a sign with the words, "Public Pound" painted thereon. It shall be the duty of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne to provide said pound and to cause to be erected therein, proper buildings for the storage of hay and feed, stalls for horses and cattle, and pens for swine, goats and geese; and also to provide suitable watering troughs for the purpose of watering such animals as may be impounded in said pound.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to elect, in the manner provided in the charter of said city on the nomination of the Mayor, some suitable person as Pound Master of the City of Fort Wayne, who shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and to such other duties in addition thereto as the Common Council may, from time to time by ordinance or resolution, direct; said poundmaster shall be vested with the same power in the apprehension and arrest of persons violating this ordinance or by law of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne as is conferred upon police and constables of said city, and shall have the same power and authority to execute, serve and return all process for the enforcement of all by-laws and ordinances of said city, and shall be deemed to be a police constable of said city, but shall not be liable to be called upon to do patrol duty. He shall be paid monthly out of the general fund of said city, such annual salary as the Common Council shall determine, but shall receive no fees or perquisites. He shall give to the city a sufficient bond, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as Pound master and Police Constable, and for the payment into the City Treasury of all moneys received in his official capacity. He may be removed from his office for official misconduct in the manner provided for in the charter of said city for the removal of officers by the Common Council

Section 3. No horse, cattle, sheep, goat swine or geese shall be permitted to run at large at any time within the corporate limits of the City of Fort Wayne.

Section 4. If any horse, cattle, sheep, goat, swine or geese be found running at large within the corporate limits of the City of Fort Wayne, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, it shall be the duty of the Pound Master to take the same into custody and to impound the same in the public pound. They shall not be released therefrom until the owner or the person entitled to the possession thereof shall pay the pound master the sum of one dollar together with fifty cents per day for every day such animal shall be kept by the poundmaster. And in case the person entitled to the possession of such animal shall not, within five days from the time of so taking into custody, pay the aforesaid charges and take it away, it shall be the duty of the poundmaster to sell the same at public auction by giving ten days public notice of such sale by posting the same up in at least three of the most public places in the City of Fort Wayne. And it shall also be the duty of such poundmaster to give at least five days notice of such sale to the owner of such animal, when known; but if any such animal shall be redeemed by paying to the poundmaster said fees and expenses for sustenance, as herein is provided, at any time before they are actually sold, the same shall be released by the poundmaster.

Section 5. The said poundmaster shall keep a book, to be provided by the city, in which he shall enter as minutely as practicable, a full description of every animal taken from the streets, alleys or other public places of the city; the locality from which the animal was taken, the name of the owner, if known, or when ascertained, and the day and hour when impounded, keeping in said book an accurate account and record of all his doings and proceedings in the premises. At the end of each calendar month he shall make a full report to the Common Council of said city of all his doings and of all moneys by him collected under the provisions of this ordinance, which report shall be verified by oath. He shall pay all money's paid to or collected to or received by him under the provisions of this ordinance to the Treasurer of said city, for the use of said city and the Treasurers receipt for the same shall accompany each monthly report.

Section 6. The City Marshal shall keep in his office a book to be called the "Complaint Book" and to be provided by the city, in which he shall enter all complaints made to him in regard to animals found running at large contrary to the provisions of this ordinance giving the name and residence of the complainant. Any citizen may enter for himself a complaint in said book. [illegible] be the duty of the Chief of Police, or any member of the police force, or the Marshal of said city, to give said poundmaster, either by personal notice, or by entering the same in the complaint book, notice of all animals seen by them running at large in the streets or alleys of the city, in violation of this ordinance. It shall be the duty of the poundmaster to daily inspect the book of complaints, and to give immediate attention to all complaints therein entered, or that may be made to himself in person

Section 7. Any person or persons who shall hinder obstruct or delay the poundmaster or his assistants in taking into custody any animal found running at large contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the city prison or common jail of the County of Allen, in the discretion of the court or magistrate before whom the conviction may be had, for a period not exceeding thirty days and in case such court or magistrate shall only impose a fine and costs, the offender may be sentenced to be imprisoned in the county jail or city prison of Allen County, until the payment of such fine and costs, for a term of not exceeding thirty days.

Section 8. The moneys received by the poundmaster in his official capacity for the redemption fees and pound charges on any animal or animals impounded by him, or from the sale of any animal or animals impounded, shall be by him forthwith deposited in the city treasury, for the use of the city, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the city prison or common jail of the County of Allen, in the discretion of the court or magistrate before whom the conviction may be had, for a period not exceeding thirty days and in case such court or magistrate shall only impose a fine and costs, the offender may be sentenced to be imprisoned in the city prison or common jail of Allen county, until the payment of such fine and costs, for a term not exceeding thirty days.

Section 9. The Common Council may, in its discretion, return to the owner of any animal or animals sold under the provisions of this ordinance, the money arising from the sale thereof, after deducting from said money, all fines, costs and the expenses for the sustenance and sale of such animal.

Section 10. It shall be lawful for any person to drive to the pound, and to deliver to the possession of the poundmaster, any animal found by such person running at large within the City of Fort Wayne, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.
